THE 1939 SYLLABUS

Published By

*The Senior Class
East Orange High School*

East Orange, New Jersey

Presentation

• Today will soon be yesterday; tomorrow will always be beckoning onward. In that little pause before tomorrow slips away into yesterday, will you sometimes spend an hour with this volume, letting it recall the joy and sorrow, the discouragement and exaltation of those four crowded years? With the sincere wish that you will, we present to the Board of Education and citizens of East Orange, to the alumni and alumnae, to the graduating class, and to the student body, the SYLLABUS for 1939.

Dedication

Howard F. Hart

• To Howard F. Hart, with sincere gratitude for his many contributions to East Orange High School, the class of 1939 dedicates this volume of the SYLLABUS.

His cheerfulness, understanding, sense of humor, keen intelligence, interest in young people, and ability to make his subject living and interesting, have won for him the admiration and affection of every one.

Mr. Hart, with his friendly smile and twinkling eyes, will never be forgotten by East Orange students.

To The Class of 1939 . . .

• A great honor has come to the class of 1939! Our most honorable alumnus Robert McDonald, now President of the United States, has sent invitations to former members of his class in East Orange High School to join him on an informal party aboard the presidential yacht, which on May 20, 1956, will follow the traditional route of the good ship MANDALAY. His secretary, Jane Campbell, gave us permission to print the following excerpts from the answers; besides showing how many care to attend, they are of interest as indicating how illustrious and important many of us have become.

DOROTHY FORSYTHE—"Have just accepted the editorship of THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL. I'd love to come before I leave for Washington, D. C."

BILL BERNER—"Leaving for my new post today—must be faithful to the United States diplomatic service."

FRED BURLEY—"Must refuse on account of my coming trip abroad with the U.S.A. High Jumpers. It would be rather difficult to have the Olympics postponed."

JEAN CANFIELD—"Congress is still in session at this late date, and as secretary to the Speaker of the 'House,' Gordon Perine, I shall be unable to attend unless my employer can find the time to come also."

WILLIAM KURZBAN—"HAMLET is opening on the night of the reunion—an actor can't very well use his understudy on his opening night."

ANN FORBUSH—"I'm already looking forward to coming, for the spring buying will soon be over. Carolyn Smythe and I shall be glad to leave our Fifth Avenue Shop."

ARTHUR SHARA—"I'm so sorry, but I have a very special appointment to photograph the Royal Family of England.—Oh, the life of a photographer!"

JEAN THOMAS—"Shall be flying the New York-California route that week. Air hostesses miss loads of fun, I assure you."

ROBERT FRANKEL—"Shall be happy to accept, provided my latest case before the Supreme Court is completed on time."

PEGGY HARTMAN—"I'll have just returned from my lecture tour of the South Sea Islands—Shall be glad to come."

GEORGE O'BRIEN—"Shall be delighted to come. It will be a great relief after supervising and planning the new interior decorations for the Waldorf-Astoria."

MARJORIE BROWN (nee Lincoln)—"All the little Browns have the measles. It's a good thing I became a nurse."

RALPH NEIBART—"Must refuse, for I shall be debating with the Harvard Faculty Team in Washington. Once a debater, always a debater."

CAROLYN MOYLE—"The 'Met' season closes on that night, and I can hardly miss my last and starring performance of the season."

WESLEY McCLELLAN—"Have just returned from solving a case at Scotland Yard. I'd love to come if you promise no murders!"

DOROTHY LEVINS—"Shall fly to New York immediately with my troupe of Jumping Jovial Jitterbugs, so be prepared for a good old-fashioned Jam Session."

BILL CANFIELD—"It's a shame, but I'll have to be close to the Weather Bureau awaiting the good news which will start me on my round-the-world flight."

JANET TOMASSON—"I'm already looking forward to coming with latest Ice Ballet from the New Yorker."

ERNEST GZELL—"Have just finished directing the new Rurade-Silver spectacle—shall be so glad to get away from Hollywood. I'm leaving on the midnight plane."

PEGGY WALKER—"Am showing the newest additions to my stables that night. Remember, I never could resist horses."

An Announcement

- ROBERT CROOKS—"You know, it's remarkable but the National Convention of Drum Majors and the party fall on the same day. I'd be tempted to skip the convention if it weren't going to be in Hollywood."
- MARY JANE SAYLOR—"I really should like to, but the Washington social season is just winding up and I'll be so-o-o busy."
- JOHN CLAFLIN—"I'll be glad to come and shall also bring along my band as an added attraction. I'm sure everyone will recognize many members. Here's an example—Art Gerow, saxophonist, and Alice Peterson, vocalist."
- ELIZABETH SCHERHOLZ—"I'm teaching college French at Vassar, but I'll make it a point to attend."
- DAVID JONES—"Shall be glad to attend, since my super-liner is in port; and it will be nice to meet all the old friends."
- DOREEN KEHOE—"Why, didn't you know? I'm appearing as guest soloist with Tommy MacKenna and his band at Carnegie Hall."
- KENNETH BARRIE—"Shall be delighted to come, but I'll warn you ahead of time that I'll have to bring along my Guinea Pigs. My latest research experiments in Biology depend on them, so you see I wouldn't dare leave them at home."
- MARY ELLEN MARDEN—"I'll come if I can take time off from my work. John Powers Jr. has me posing for a Red Book magazine cover."
- FRED BROWN—"Must tender my regrets, but that new factory of mine takes up an amazing amount of time."
- PATTIE BARRIE—"Shooting our final scenes now, but I must wait to see the rushes. We actresses certainly have our troubles."
- RICHARD GASCOIGNE—"I'm America's Ambassador of Goodwill. I've already outdone Grover Whalen. How could I stay away?"
- ELSIE EVANS—"What a shame! Upsala is holding a dance and reception in honor of my husband, who has just been appointed Dean, and I must attend his first social event at the college."
- OSWALD PORTER—"Shall travel to the reunion over my new bridge from New York to Bermuda, the longest in the world."
- IRVING PAPE—"Certainly I'll come. I guess the Associated Press can get along without its sports editor for one day."
- HELEN STACKHOUSE—"As the Fashion editor of VOGUE I'm sure I'll be able to find the time to come. I haven't seen any East Orange people in so long."
- JACK GARRABRANT—"Of course, I'll be there. Coaching Pitt football doesn't take up my time in the spring. I'll bring along line coach Paul Jackson, too."
- MARY BURNSIDE—"Surely I'll be there. Being chief laboratory assistant to the head of the Detroit Hospital gives me some spare time—but not much."
- NATE JOHNSON—"Can't come, but you can come to me. Drop in at the Cotton Club after the festivities are over and see my jitter-jitter band."
- BILL BREATHED—"Running a giant corporation is not all beer and skittles. It will be a pleasure to drop the cares of office just for one day."
- BILL GRAHAM—"You couldn't keep me away, for my last series of photographs for the Stay-Strate Necktie Company has just been completed."
- KENNETH BOEHM—"Am playing in Madison Square Garden with the American Oilers champion basketball team that night, but I'll try to make it."
- BETTY FORBES—"I'm finally starting to read GONE WITH THE WIND, but I'll be there."
- BARBARA DISBROW—"Sorry, can't make it. I thought you knew that I have just signed a contract calling for a 20-week series of Aunt Dizzy's Little Darlings and all their Doings broadcasts."
- GEORGE SIGGINS—"Oh, yes. I'm a model now—you know those Eat-more-yeast ads, where they have a before and after eating model? I'm the before."

Class Will

• We, the Senior Class of 1939, of the East Orange High School, in the State of New Jersey, being of established muscular and doubtful mental superiority, and being desirous of impressing the following facts upon our much-lamented offspring, if that be possible, do hereby make public this our last will and testament.

FIRST—To our immediate successors, the class of 1940, we leave:

(1) One faculty to be your cherished possession for one year, after which time said faculty is the property of the Senior Class immediately following;

(2) Various halls for studying, somewhat the worse for wear, including an accordion-pleated dictionary to be used for thunder effects produced by dropping said dictionary upon the floor;

(3) The old familiar crossroads at 214A and the duty of bolstering its sagging walls with bodily force, if necessary;

(4) The rapidly diminishing art of dodging Messrs. Daniels, Davis, Fraser, and Carr;

(5) The privilege of evading the C.P.'s;

(6) The privilege of expressing sentiments and disapproval in hitherto-unused ways;

SECOND—To our next oldest, the Class of 1941, we leave:

(1) The dignity which indicates your coming of age;

(2) That fine recreation hall, 221, with its numerous opportunities for finding hidden magazines and newspapers;

(3) The dignity of having a few of your members holding down the bench;

THIRD—To the Class of 1942 we bequeath:

(1) The wisdom and sophistication that comes from being upper-classmen;

(2) The untold joys of faithfully directing some three hundred "freshies" to the elevator to the fourth floor;

(3) The task of early training in the comfortable seats to be had on all water fountains;

FOURTH—To the freshmen, we bequeath:

(1) One rambling red-brick building with its maze of dark corridors, and its classrooms fully equipped with missing waste-paper baskets, broken pencil-sharpeners, stuffed ink-wells, and one patient faculty (always present);

(2) The Via Dolorosa to 228, which will be known to you quite early in the year;

FIFTH—To the faculty, we leave a huge vote of thanks that in no way compensates for the time and patience they have spent in filling our heads with knowledge. To them, we also leave all unsigned unsatisfactory slips and sundry other articles.

SIXTH—To the school in general, we leave the following:

(1) An increased amount of school spirit;

(2) Bigger, better, and more school dances;

(3) And more victories over Barringer.

To Miss Kidder, we leave all our lost articles: glasses, combs, pens, pencils, lipstick, powder puffs, hats, sweaters, and what not, to be used in the founding of YE OLDE JUNK AND ANTIQUE SHOPPE.

To Coaches Shotwell, Lewis, and Hellwig, we leave eleven "Perfect Specimens" who will do or die for old E.O.

Since we are leaving, never to return, this institution of happiness and knowledge, we find that for the first time we must be serious. The thoughts of leaving these pleasant premises in which we have whiled away our leisure time, and of facing the hard, cruel world overwhelms our usually care-free attitude. Therefore, in a burst of gratitude and loyalty, we hereby place the responsibility of executors in the hands of Ralph E. Files and Harold I. Palmer.

Student Council

• The Student Council started its activities this year with the approval of a list of suggested Student Court judges submitted to it. The Council also approved the members of the temporary Corridor Patrol, and members of the social committee.

Because of a lack of eligible candidates to hold sophomore class offices, the President appointed the officers. These were approved by the Council.

The Student Council arranged for the presentation of a variety show, the Council supporting a combined group of Committees which presented the show.

An important work of the year was the revising of the East Orange High School Handbook. The Council believes that this book, which was completed last year, fills a great need of the students.

Safety Council

*Good To See
 Beer Enthusiasm*

- During the second year of its activity, the Safety Council attempted to decrease accidents by analyzing their causes and destroying them. To accomplish this object, members of the Council went to heads of the different departments to see what each department had been doing for safety, and held with some of the members of the faculty a joint meeting to determine preventive measures. For use in emergencies, the Council gave to each of its members a card with telephone numbers; and to every teacher and C.P., a list of ten rules. Also because of their help last year to the student body as a whole, there were provided for all the doors in the building new signs warning people to open them slowly.

These measures have helped the Council, a comparatively new organization, to secure outstanding results in decreasing accidents.

Dr. Paul W. Thompson & The Band

- The band's first appearance this year was at the football games as a marching band under the capable direction of Jay Cox and David Jones. Instead of giving a concert with the orchestra, this year it launched its own program after the Easter vacation. Featured in this event were David Chambers, Doreen Kehoe, and Gavin Moffatt, the Trumpet Trio, who had previously won fifth place on a Major Bowes' program. This separate concert was the band's chief contribution to the school activities of 1938-39.

The Orchestra

• During the past year the orchestra has contributed much to the school's activities. In November with the Glee Clubs it gave its first concert; and Edith Southgate, Mary Dewar, Palmira Alves, Barbara Corin, and Jean Markert went to Atlantic City as our representatives for the All-State Orchestra Concert. In addition, a selected group accompanied the casts of HOLLY AND CYPRESS and THE NIGHTINGALE, and in the early spring many of the members played in the Essex County Orchestra. At the second concert in May, also held with the Glee Clubs, Bill Kurzban was piano soloist. Shortly after this the orchestra entered in New York a national competition, which it won last year, thus completing an active season.

Dramatics

• As a preface to an unusually successful year of dramatics, the Speech and Dramatics Department presented PIERRE L'AVOCAT, an old French play of medieval times.

The Dramatics and Music Departments, combining for the first time in giving a Christmas play, presented HOLLY AND CYPRESS, a Yuletide festival of medieval England, which features the bringing in of the Yule log, caroling, dancing, and other forms of holiday merrymaking. Those in leading roles were Guy Biondi, Wayne Ross, Gladys Keeley, Allen Borden, William Cronk, and Peggy Hartman.

THE TEMPEST was presented as the spring production. This was very ably acted by Donald Bishop, William Cronk, Guy Biondi, William Kurzban, Gladys Keeley, Doris Adams, Allen Borden, Marjorie Hall, Doris Smith, Frank Adams, Lee Lightner, Oswald Porter, and William Berner. Because of the actors' splendid interpretation of their lines, their excellent acting, the coaching of Mr. Laurence B. Goodrich, and the cooperation of the A Cappella Choir and of the Girls' Physical Training and the Art Department this play was acclaimed by all and was a fitting climax to a successful year of dramatic work.

Glee Club

• In the opinion of everyone, the presentations this year of the Glee Clubs have been unusually superior. As an opening to their season, the Glee Clubs and orchestra combined in presenting a concert of semi-classical modern music. Selections from this program were also presented at student assemblies.

The Music Department, combining with the Dramatics Department in presenting HOLLY AND CYPRESS, opened the performance with a group of Christmas tunes by the Glee Clubs, which sang numerous other pieces throughout the play. The Clubs also went caroling throughout the city and participated in the carol services at the City Hall.

The crowning point of the year's productions was THE NIGHTINGALE, an operetta with an oriental flavor. Esther Patten played the title role, supported by Carolyn Moyle, Kirtland Flynn, Peggy Hartman, Ruth Kurtz, Norma Lee, Barbara Bolash, Bill Stewart, William Tippet, Raymond Deyo, and Perry Goldstein.

Fourteen students from East Orange participated in the Essex County Music Festival.

The A Cappella Choir assisted in the presentation of THE TEMPEST, and in the spring, as their last production, the Glee Clubs combined with the orchestra to present a program similar to that given in the fall.

• This year THE NEWS celebrated the fortieth year of its existence as an organ of the student body. This birthday was celebrated by a six-page issue that included the history of the paper, comments by Mayor Martens and Mr. Files, and messages from alumni. The paper received hearty congratulations because of its great success in keeping a record of the activities of the school for such a long period.

The organization of the NEWS Board was slightly changed this year, two associate editors taking the place of the former managing editor. The position of editor-in-chief was ably filled by William Kurzban, with Robert Frankel and Marion Phillips as associate editors. Steven Brown, Betty Brann, Jeanne Goebel, Mary Dewar, Elsie Evans, and Irving Pape, board editors, cooperated in furthering the success of the paper.

The adviser of THE NEWS, Mr. Theron Coffin, left in January for a leave of absence. He was replaced for the remaining half year by Miss Marjorie Hallett.

Several members of the NEWS Board were present at the meeting of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. This is the largest association of its kind in the United States, and students from all parts of the country attend it.

An unusual event of the paper this year was an issue edited by the teachers, containing a teachers' gossip column, special reports, cartoons, and movie reviews. Teachers and pupils alike agreed that this was an interesting and successful experiment, which they hope will be repeated another year.

Social Committee

• The Social Committee, of which Mr. Russell Fraser is the faculty adviser, this year included Patricia Barrie, Bill Graham, Wesley McClellan, Jean Ragsdale, and Bob Cosgrove.

As a result of their efforts, two pleasant evenings were provided for E.O.H.S. jitterbugs. The first was the Junior-Senior Prom, held on the evening of January 28. From every side came unanimous acclaim, some declaring that this was the best dance ever given at the school. Don Weedan and his Omegans, veterans of school dances, supplied the music. The Prom was both a financial and a social success.

The annual Grad Dance was held in the spring. This dance was also enjoyed by every one attending it, and formed a fitting climax to senior activities.

Football

• From Pitt, as an All-American center, and from Hazelton High School, Pennsylvania, as a producer of championship teams, comes George Shotwell.

Immediately upon his arrival at East Orange, Mr. Shotwell started his extensive training. The Pitt power plays which he introduced clicked all season with unfailing regularity.

Cranford again was the opponent in the opening game and was taken over by the score of 9-0. West Side, however, proved to be too much for the Red and Blue's inexperienced team. Fumbling was one of the main handicaps in the game, and East Orange lost one touchdown by a dropped pass. The game ended with the ball one foot from the Green goal and the score 13-6. Those who saw in the West Side game the beginning of a line of defeats were far from correct. A week later Morristown felt the Panther's claws and was pushed under by 28-0. Only grim hard fighting kept West Orange from crossing the goal line in a thrilling tie, 0-0. More than once East Orange was forced back to the last few yards and then took command of the field and held the Mountaineers with a wall of steel. Plainfield could offer only a weak resistance and lost, 21-0. Supposedly a strong team, Montclair entertained the East Orange visitors lavishly by succumbing with the same score as weak Plainfield, 21-0. Nutlev had been undefeated since the season of 1936 and unscored upon in 1938. The prophets were not merely suprised; they were overcome at the 21-0 victory that East Orange relentlessly pushed over. The Orange let-down after the Nutley game was natural. The weather was hot, and it sapped the energy of both teams. The only score was on a pass which Bob Files carried over the line for the winning touchdown and a score of 7-0.

Those who missed the first few minutes of the Columbia game might just as well have stayed home. On the opening kickoff of the game, Nat Johnson carried the ball eighty-two yards with perfect blocking for a sensational touchdown. Captain Fred Brown's usual faultless place-kicking made the score 7-0. From then on it was a grim struggle, which lasted until Columbia, in a well-executed side-line pass, scored six points; when the attempt for a conversion was unsuccessful, Columbia ended it all with a storm of frantic passes. This 7-6 victory is the first East Orange has won from Columbia since 1932.

In the Barringer game, although the day threatened snow, Ashland Stadium was filled to capacity, leaving only standing room. The first half of the game was uneventful, and the two teams went to the showers with no blood drawn by either side. Shortly after the opening of the third quarter, Barringer made a touchdown that seemed to be the deciding score of the game. The score stood 6-0. Against this apparently insurmountable obstacle East Orange showed what real spirit can be. For sixty-eight yards the Red and Blue kept the ball in its possession; and at the end of the third quarter, little, one-hundred-and-ten-pound Bennett carried the pigskin around right end for a well-earned score. The try for the extra point was unsuccessful, and the score stood 6-6. From this point the game was all East Orange's. The Pitt power plays clicked, and the final touchdown at the end of the fourth quarter was earned and achieved by fine blocking and expert ball-carrying.

An extra incentive toward winning was the desire of the team to carry on for Jack Garrabrant, who became twenty years old the day before Thanksgiving and therefore ineligible to play.

In his first year at East Orange Mr. Shotwell has brought the Panthers to the first Inter-Oranges title they have ever held in any sport and helped us even the score with Barringer. East Orange, second in the state according to the officially recognized Colliton system, is back where she belongs in the football world.

Basketball

• Coach Stanley Griffin has led his team through another successful season. In the regular schedule East Orange won nine out of thirteen games and then lost to Bloomfield in the state championship play-offs.

The Varsity started by beating the Alumni, 38-14. Nutley, the second opponent, although it had previously won four games, lost by the large margin of 18-32. In the Columbia game, with two minutes left to play, Bob Duffey sank a goal that made the score 16-15; and Ray Herdic, with a foul shot, ended the scoring, 17-15 in East Orange's favor. After a rough but clean battle which ended 26-24, the Tornadoes of Orange gave East Orange its first defeat of the season.

Ken Boehm played his first varsity game against Irvington, helping East Orange win by a 43-33 count against a weak and disorganized team. Nutley revenged herself by winning the second game between the schools this season, the final score being 27-25. Montclair handed East Orange its third defeat by winning 35-31 in a game played at Montclair's court. By defeating Columbia, 29-25, East Orange remained in the running for the inter-Oranges' championship. This game, which East Orange won 17-15, was almost a repetition of the first one of the season. Then being beaten by East Orange at the East Orange gymnasium (29-24) cost Orange the inter-Oranges' basketball championship which it had held for nine years. Later East Orange proved by trampling Montclair 35-28, that she could not be beaten on her own court.

West Orange next bowed to the tune of 26-20; but Bloomfield outscored the Panthers, 41-35, and a week later also won the state tournament, 44-30. By beating West Orange in the last regular game of the season, however, East Orange won the inter-Oranges' basketball crown for the first time in history.

• With Charles Boutsikaris as coach, the East Orange Fencing Team has had another brilliant season, winning thirteen out of nineteen matches as well as defeating several local club teams. Under the leadership of Captain Sully, the team, composed of Rufo Sanchez, Ted Garrabrants, Sheldon Seigel, Julian Batlan, and Bill Wyrough, took third place in the National Interclass Fencing Meet at New York this year.

Fencing has the longest season of any high school sport. It starts in late November and ends in late March or early April. The schedule is an arduous and difficult one because of the large variety in teams met. High schools, preparatory schools, clubs and academies all are opponents at some time during the season. Although not cheered on by a huge crowd of spectators or idolized by the rest of the student body, the East Orange fencing team each year quietly and efficiently walks away with some of the highest honors in the local and national competition. The Fidelis Club of Irvington was one of the local clubs that lost to East Orange this season.

The scores for the school matches were the following:

E. O. 5—Central	4	E. O. 6—Seton Hall	3
E. O. 3—Lincoln	6	E. O. 3—Lincoln	6
E. O. 5—Weequahic	4	E. O. 6—Weequahic	3

Track

• In spite of a loss of many members from last year's championship team, the 1938 season started with East Orange's winning eleven out of twelve events in a meet with South Side at its stadium. By taken the broad jump with a leap of twenty feet, one inch, Hicks of South Side prevented a clean sweep. At the meet with Thomas Jefferson High School, held in Elizabeth, East Orange made a score of 65-52 and ended that school's twelve-meet winning streak. Paul Jolcuvar and Bill Booth between them scored 23 points.

In the annual interclass meet, the junior class was victorious over the sophomores, 47-38, while the senior managed to score only 14 points, although they made all four places in the shot put. The juniors had the two highest scorers, Orr with 10 points and Jackson with 8.

In the Board of Education meet in Newark, from among twenty-eight schools, East Orange stood third, with Columbia and Barringer first and second. In the Montclair Invitation Meet, East Orange and Columbia tied for third place, with the team's only first place taken by Hendley in the 880-yard run.

Of the remaining meets, East Orange lost one to West Side (59-58), winning only five of the thirteen first places although placing in all but the broad jump. In the meet with Belleville, East Orange won 62-36, even though Belleville had previously lost but one dual meet and won five. East Orange was the defending champion at New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association Meet; but the team managed to take only seventh place against Montclair's first. The biggest value from the season was in the experience and training for the future members of the team.

almost equal in number the baseball team, now an official school team, completed a fair season.

- With wins and losses

Off to a poor start by losing to West Side, the team recovered and beat Arts High and Columbia in quick succession. A hard-fought game against Orange was then dropped by a one-to-two margin, followed by another loss to Bloomfield. Six innings in the pouring rain netted East Orange a second win over Columbia. Orange again barely took a two-to-one game, which was fought more vigorously than the first. A string of three victories over Barringer, Belleville, and Verona followed this defeat. Barringer lost by changing the field rules at East Orange Oval and making a home run out of a hit to the garages in short left field. The game was originally scheduled for the school's Stadium in Newark, and when it was played in East Orange, Barringer had the right to make its own field rules. This rule brought in two runs for the Newark team in the early part of the contest, but East Orange again took the lead when it made two runs in the same manner. The season was ended by a loss to Nutley after a long, stubborn fight.

"Happy" Leider is surely bound for bigger and better baseball when he leaves East Orange High. His pitching pulled the team out of many holes and was an important factor in most of the games won.

Taking the game as a whole, Coach Griffin's boys made a good showing for themselves and the promise to do better in the future.

Mr. Davis (Coach), H. Force, L. Pfeiffer, R. Wilson, D. Adams, A. Brienza, W. Weller, B. Montwid.

Tennis 1938

• The tennis team has once again magnificently earned its laurels. With the whole season a succession of victories, Mr. Davis is carrying on the tradition started by Mr. Grosenbaugh and continued by our late beloved George Henchel. East Orange has always stood high in tennis competition, and 1938 finds it in first place in the state along with Montclair, its only stumbling block in the way to the State championship. East Orange's slightly heavier schedule did not make the difference necessary for the exclusive ownership of the title.

Kearny was the first victim to be smashed by Captain Robert Wilson and his team-mates. Bloomfield followed close behind. The third match of the season was against Montclair and was won five to four only after long, hard-fought sets. In quick succession Columbia, Kearny for a second time, and Bloomfield again fell beside the way. Barringer and Plainfield fought well but not well enough, and then Columbia and Barringer once more failed to make the grade. In the single game with Passaic, East Orange easily conquered a weaker team. Defeat came only at the very end of the season when Montclair beat East Orange. This evened the score between the two schools and kept the state championship uncertain. Only after long consideration was the title awarded to the two schools jointly.

• Coach Stanley

Griffin started the soccer season for 1938 with insurmountable obstacles facing him. For some time rain delayed initial practice and made the fields sloppy. Only three lettermen returned from the 1937 season. Pat Marano, captain of last year's team, Kenneth Boehm, and Art Modugno formed the nucleus of this year's team.

The season started with a loss to Verona by a score of 1-10. Montclair won the second game, 2-1. In Summit, East Orange met the only team that it beat all season. Summit remained scoreless while East Orange pushed over two goals. Chatham was the next and the third team to defeat E.O. by one point, with a score of 1-0. Harrison came to play on the sloppiest, wettest field of the season. Elmwood Oval slowed both teams; and, slipping on the mud, East Orange lost more than one goal. Harrison, one of the leading contenders for state championship honors, forced the home team to play defensively and waste three opportunities to score. The game ended with a score of 4-2. Pat Marano, captain, scored both East Orange points.

At Soverel Field, scene of the next game, Montclair made a free kick three minutes after the start of the struggle and put another goal across in the closing minutes of the play, to end with a score of 2-0. Summit lost a second game by a 1-0 score, and this was East Orange's last victory for the season. Chatham won by 1-0, and Verona walked over East Orange, 3-0, for its second conquest. Kearny played a safe but sensational game at her home field and by a final score of 3-0 won over East Orange its eighth straight game in an unbeaten and unscored-upon series.

Sanchez, Araneo, Bowman, Giorgio, Bellina, Roselle, Ghee, and Heilfurth made up the new and inexperienced East Orange team. They will form the basis for a new and more successful team next season.

IT'S NOT TOO EARLY !

The sooner youth acquires worth-while information the better he will be equipped for his journey through life.

One of his most valuable assets in future years will be his life insurance protection.

He should feel free to consult his elders on this subject.

Then he will know what he needs when the time comes to buy it.
